

Sometimes I am full and sometimes I am not...
but I'm where you'll find packages and letters a lot!

(mailbox)

All the neighborhood kids come from far and near, to climb, swing, and play with friends here!

Turn me on to see at night, I'll make the porch seem
oh so bright.

(house light)

Every year I stand up tall, but every October part of me begins to fall.

(tree)

I am sturdy and stable -
a piece of furniture you see.
Looking for literature?
Look no further than me!

(bookshelf)

I go up and down, but not all around. You could say that I level up but I also level down.

(elevator in Barbie doll house or stairs)

I move a lot and at a very fast pace, but always stay in the exact same place.

the sky, get on me and you will fly!

my pack. Zip me up before slinging me on your back.

dad go, to get energy
when they are feeling low.

When I'm hungry feed me some bread! After I pop, bring on the spread.

the dirt. If I get in your eyes it might hurt.

(shampoo/soap)

This square may be small,
but don't let it fool you,
it knows all!

(laptop/computer)

You have one, probably more, each with a knob and even a lock. When company comes you will hear a knock, knock, knock.

(door)

I willingly lay on the floor, welcoming you at the door.

(under door mat)

I am not really needed
during the day, but at night I am turned on to show you the way!

should be left on the street."

trough or use me in the summer to cool you off.

(garden hose)

Pump me up so I can roll, but I could pop if I hit a hole.

Dangling on the seat by a chain, pumping your feet some height you will gain.
